Conjunctions

A conjunction is a word that joins two words, group of words or sentences. Conjunctions are also called linking words.

We use 'and' to join two words, groups of words or sentences.

- Adam and Paul are friends.

We use 'but' to join words, groups of words or sentences that are opposite in meaning.

- Anil is tall but Sameer is short.

Underline the conjunctions in these sentences.

1. I eat fruits and vegetables.
2. An elephant is big but a rat is small.
3. Ria and Zoya are friends.
4. I can cook but I cannot bake.
5. Julie speaks English and Spanish.
6. Anna likes cats but not dogs.
7. My favourite colours are red and blue.
8. My brother can ride a bike but he cannot ride a horse.

Join these sentences with the words given in the bracket.
